

JOB VACANCY

AOI Operator QUICKCIRCUIT AUCKLAND

QuickCircuit has requirements for staff in the Automated inspection area. The AOI operator is responsible for the operation of the AOI equipment to capture and log all production related faults in the QuickCircuit database and give continuous feedback to the production lines regarding product quality.

Key Responsibilities:

- Setup, operate and maintain the SMT AOI Equipment
- Carry out optical inspection of the printed circuit boards that are processed in SMT
- Meeting inspection throughput requirements
- Logging faults into QC QA systems
- Providing continuous feedback to production lines to assist in the improvement of product quality
- Optimising AOI Program to correctly correspond with SMT customer requirements when required

Preferred skills & attributes:

- Recognised Tertiary Qualification in Electronics/Electrotechnology Engineering
- Atleast 1+ years of experience in Electronics manufacturing industry
- Strong experience with SMT or AOI production equipment
- Good technical knowledge and experience with electronics
- Professional in attitude, presentation with a very strong work ethic
- Quick learner and able to multitask
- The ability to work independently as well as within a team
- Proficient in usage of computers and computer programs/applications

Other Responsibilities / requirements

- Available for shift allocation based on company requirements.

For further information, please contact QuickCircuit HR.

If you think you have what it takes to add value to this position and grow with the company, please apply via e-mail to gchr@quickcircuit.co.nz with a covering letter and your CV.

NZ Residency or NZ Citizenship is preferred.